The Resurrection Mural Receives Prestigious Honor

The Resurrection Mural is awarded high honors by the Art Renewal Center

Temecula, CA – The Art Renewal Center has recently selected its worldwide list of Top Fine Art Paintings and has honored The Resurrection Mural by Ron DiCianni as one of the top 100 pieces of Fine Art in the World. The selection comes as part of the 6th International 2009/2010 ARC Salon Competition and is open only to selected masterworks from top artists.

This prestigious honor is the first of many acknowledgements for what many are hailing as the definitive masterwork on the subject of Christ's Resurrection.

Artist Ron DiCianni's response was to say that "[The Art Renewal Center] is on the forefront of bringing back the realization of what fine art painting really is and is supposed to be. I am honored that they see and recognize that level in my work."

As a part of its award process, The Resurrection Mural will be displayed on the Art Renewal Center's website as well as in their catalog.

About the Art Renewal Center The Art Renewal Center (www.ArtRenewal.org) is dedicated to promoting and encouraging excellence in the visual arts and has long been a champion of technically well crafted and especially pleasing fine art worldwide. Established as a reaction to the growing trend in modern art to abandon technique and instead strive for shock value and bizarre trends couched as novelty, the ARC champions Fine Visual Art in the vein of the Renaissance Masters.

About the Artist Ron DiCianni is one of the most celebrated Fine Artists in America. After several successful decades in commercial illustration with Fortune 500 companies, Ron began to exclusively paint Scriptural themes with the mission of Reclaiming the Arts for Christ. Ron DiCianni's work is recognized by both secular and Christian art connoisseurs to be some of the best ever produced and he ranks as one of the best selling artists of all time. A classically trained artist, Ron's past works include the best selling Spiritual Warfare & In the Wilderness as well as paintings for the President of the United States, The United States Olympic Committee and the Assemblies of God World Headquarters. His work is represented in galleries nationwide and he has been featured in countless Christian and secular publications.

Ron DiCianni is available for interviews and the mural is available to be reproduced with permission.
